ENTER A WILD HAVEN OF FAIRYTALE, MYTH AND EPIC

Monday 21st September 8pm

The Fate We Bring Ourselves, by Ben Haggarty

Take the tether, untie the knot, and let the beast RUN! Join Ben Haggarty at his most alarming, as he presents three remixed, extended and explicit Greek myths, conjecturally restored to their terrifying and truly awesome glory. Laced with vanity, greed, lust and jealousy, these are stories which perhaps you thought you knew...

Monday 12th October 8pm

The Heart of a Hero, by Chirine El Ansary

A son is banished, a camel causes a war, and a dead prince crosses an ocean of milk and blood. The remarkable Egyptian storyteller, Chirine El Ansary, pulls us beneath the surface of the ancient Arabian epic of Banu Hilali - intertwining myth, fairytale, and raw enchantment to reveal that even the greatest of Bedouin warriors has a heart...

Monday 16th November 8pm

The Baba Yaga Show, by Xanthe Gresham Knight

Russian super-witch, much maligned deity, uber-goddess or crone... whichever way you look at it, Baba Yaga would like to meet you, then eat you. In a night of grown-up fairytales, Xanthe Gresham Knight gets us lost in the woods and into the bony hands of granny bandy-legs, the classic hag superior. Win her fire and with it power over the dark forest...

Monday 14th December 8pm Tatterhood & The White

Bear King: A double bill of Fairytales for Grown-ups,

by Martin Shaw & Sally Pomme Clayton

She's coming this way, she's riding a goat, and she's armed with a spoon – enter Tatterhood the wild twin, accompanied by a brooding king and an old gypsy, all in the hands of Martin Shaw, the hairy man of fairytale. Meanwhile queen of the exquisite, Sally Pomme Clayton, steps into a snow-swathed fairytale forest for a dark Norwegian wondertale and a quest through ice, to climb a mountain of glass and set a cursed bear free.
