ENTER A WILD HAVEN OF FAIRYTALE, MYTH AND EPIC

Monday 11th April 8pm The Blacksmith at the Bridge of Bones, by Ben Haggarty

If knowledge equals power, then what is the responsibility of such power?

World renowned for his dynamic and challenging performances, Ben Haggarty tells his stories with infectious charm and ease. This dark and full-blooded story of power, knowledge and alchemy, explores that enduring relationship between a teacher and an apprentice.

Evocative, unflinching and beautiful by turn, this is a performance to lure you into a world where rules aren't broken lightly...

"Everything a fairytale should be...unmissable!" Everything Theatre ★★★★★

Monday 9th May 8pm Kali, by Emily Hennessey, with music by Sheema Mukherjee

From demure housewife to bloodthirsty goddess; gurgling infant to elephant man; meditating sage to cosmic fire-eater, Hindu mythology illuminates a mind-blowing world of radical transformations. Kali is one of the wildest shape-shifters of them all. Demon slayer, lifesaver, supreme mother, destruction dancer, this goddess is truly awesome.

Storyteller, Emily Hennessey, and sitar player extraordinaire, Sheema Mukherjee, take the wheel on a white-knuckled tuc-tuc ride through sun kissed palaces, fiend infested forests and every cacophonous, saffron scented marketplace in-between.

When an evil power spreads its clawed hands across the world, Kali's time has come...

Monday 20th June 8pm Little Red Riding Hood & other Lost Girls, by Nell Phoenix

What did the Wolf do to Granny?

What did Little Red do to the Wolf?

What did Little Red do to Granny?!

The fairytale world is littered with girls who are lost or misled, and very few are as innocent as you might first imagine. Nell Phoenix strays from the path in search of young, and not so young, ladies who have played in the woods, forgotten the rules, and who should have had an inkling that something was likely to go horribly wrong.

This will be darkly humorous and seriously playful...
