ENTER A WILD HAVEN OF FAIRYTALE, MYTH AND EPIC

Monday 6th February 7pm Love in the Shadows, by Sally Pomme Clayton.

Peppered with tableau images from the tiniest Pollockesque shadow theatre, Sally Pomme Clayton tells gothic grown-up fairytales. Stories of lust, loss, madness & mistakes - strange liaisons of the celestial kind, sexual encounters probably best avoided, and the wild Russian goddess Baba Yaga herself.

Ready yourself an hour of dark enchantment, complete with a good nip of something to keep the cold out, and the hot in...

'She is a dream-weaver, a spell-binder' Londonist

Monday 3rd April 8pm Myths Unleashed - Atalanta, by Ben Haggarty.

A girl raised by a bear, Centaurs intent on rape, maniacal kings, troublesome boars and bitterly feuding deities contrive the bloodiest race to ever stain the soil of Arcady.

Audaciously reshuffling epic Greek Mythology, Ben Haggarty brings to the stage a fierce tale of a remarkable virgin hunter and devotee of Artemis, who sure as hell doesn't want to have anything to do with men. Spend a moonlit night in the company of wild women, cocksure warriors and gods unleashed.

'A fresh dose of magic that you need in your life' Everything Theatre

Monday 8th May 8pm Fairytales for Grown-ups - Uncaged, by Michael Harvey.

A wild man in a cage is holding the exact thing you've been looking for, and you don't have the key...

In a charm-your-socks-off performance, Michael Harvey brings us a story of uncaged wonder and transformation, complete with cross-dressing, a huge hairy man, attempted seduction, and a plot that twists and turns. This story comes from a place where everyday life and the fantastic collide. Hang on to your hats - this one's a corker.

Monday 5th June 8pm The Frog Princess Punked, by Sally Pomme Clayton.

Music by Georgia Kalogeropoulou and Dawn Rose. Images by Fotios Begklis.

Crazed Russian fairytale meets punk rock. Ivan is forced to marry a frog. Baba Yaga meets Koschey the Deathless. And the patriarchy is challenged...

Sally Pomme Clayton and an all-girl band weld the noise of punk with a surreal narrative about the perils of annexing the wild, and the wisdom of letting the women loose. It's gonna be angry. It's gonna be loud!

'Disgusting! Get out before the doors close!' The Guardian
